

BOULDERS INN & SUITES

SERVICE ANIMAL POLICY

Our current pet policy only allows for service animals. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) defines a Service Animal as: any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, developmental, psychiatric, intellectual, or other disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition.

Guests are asked to notify the Front Desk that they are traveling with a service animal so that all staff can be made aware of that fact. Guests will not be asked at check-in for the reason they require a service animal. Rather, they will be asked to sign a credibility statement verifying their dog is a service animal.

We have many employees that love their animals and treat them like family. However, the decision has been made to make Boulders Inn & Suites pet-free properties. We will be more than happy to direct you to an excellent boarding facility in your hotel's area.

If you have any questions concerning our service animal policy please contact by email at info@bouldersinnandsuites.com

Safe travels,

Boulders Hospitality
